A CO-OPERATIVE DESIGN HUB
populating a new innovation quarter

MAKING WORK TOGETHER

Fumbally Exchange is a community of design-focused small businesses, sole traders and start-ups. Our aim is to cultivate an atmosphere for creative and regenerative growth in a time of great challenges and volatility in our industry.

We believe in the capacity and influence of architects and designers to imbue real, exalting and economically measurable benefits to citizen and place.

At Fumbally Exchange, businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs can come to work;

- to produce, to share information and facilities;
- to research and test ideas;
- to simply be under this creative envelope connecting across many disciplines and with strong bonds across the design world.
